- Tutorial NPC here to save the day!

We've all read those stories—the protagonist has a terrible accident but then comes back as a key character in a fantasy novel—and so has Lucian. Imagine his surprise when he gets into one then is reincarnated in a fantasy game he's played as... an NPC! He's supposed to change the fates, but how?!

Imagine a GAME OF THRONES style fantasy series with multiple fantasy factions in conflict...
...only with the sensibility of having a character with contemporary sensibilities driving the action.

A young woman with dark hair and bangs is sitting in a black leather armchair, blowing a pink bubblegum bubble. She is wearing a green and purple striped sweater over a black top. She is holding a pink video game controller. The background is a room with a bed, a lamp, and various posters on the wall.

Lucian used to tease his sister about her addiction to videogames, especially a fantasy RPG called Crimson Fate...

She made him play it and he ended up being fixated on the complex worldbuilding and the various “bosses” he needed to defeat, in this fantasy world torn apart by an apocalyptic war!

Hunt down those who killed Talion's family, and learn the history of the Wraith.

It was so multifaceted, he often had to consult the "NPC" (Non-Player Character)... also named Lucian!

The easygoing computer-generated character had charts and slides ready to explain anything Lucian needed to know to beat a boss!

And this game has a ton of opponents worthy of attention, including the half-werewolf,
VIRGIL.

The challenges of the game are nothing compared to real life, where Lucian is dealt a horrific fate-dying in a car accident...

...but, rather than the end, this is only the beginning, as, in the twilight between life and death, the GOD OF FATE tells him that he is the only one who can save the world. He's given another chance at life...

A dramatic fantasy scene. In the foreground, two heroes stand back-to-back. The hero on the left is a woman with long blonde hair, wearing a green and gold armor with a red cape that flows behind her. The hero on the right is a man with brown hair, wearing blue and gold armor. They are positioned in front of a large, ornate castle that is engulfed in flames. In the background, a massive green dragon with long, spiky wings is flying towards the viewer, its body casting a long shadow. The sky is filled with smoke and fire, and the overall atmosphere is one of a epic confrontation.

...but not the world he left...

...the world of the VIDEOGAME,
CRIMSON FATE!

The game was designed to be a kind of recruiting tool to find the ONE who could help this ALTERNATE DIMENSION that is reflected once only on a screen... but is now REAL LIFE!

Now, he is the body of the NPC he once relied on to learn this world...

...only the Crimson Fate world he now inhabits is TEN YEARS PRIOR to the WAR depicted in the game. Lucian suddenly realizes his job... to PREVENT THE WAR!

To go from "N.P.C." to "G.O.A.T.", Lucian will need to find every "Boss" from the game, learn why they will come into conflict... and then steer this world to new, more peaceful and prosperous fate!
